

Yale-New Haven Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship for SCBNA Student Members

The Southern Connecticut Black Nurses Association, Inc. is accepting applications for two $750.00 scholarships for active SCBNA student members. Yale-New Haven Hospital Auxiliary funds the scholarship. The students must be in good academic standing and are enrolled in an accredited undergraduate-nursing program.

The following criteria must be met for consideration as a candidate:

1. Active SCBNA student membership
2. Completed application
3. Essay required responding to the question, "How will you in your nursing role make a positive impact in the African American Community in relation to one of these areas, diabetes, hypertension, HIV/AIDS, breast or prostate cancer, obesity or health disparities?"
4. A copy of your most recent semester transcript with grades and a cumulative grade point average.
5. Letter of recommendation from a teacher, advisor, or counselor.
6. Your GPA must meet your schools criteria for academic eligibility.
7. Completed applications must be postmarked by April 3, 2010.

Application forms and additional information is also available online: www.scbna.org
Please mail completed materials to:

Southern Connecticut Black Nurses' Association, Inc.

P.O. Box 2973

New Haven, Connecticut 06515-0073

Scholarships recipients will be notified by April 10, 2010.

The awardees must be present to accept the award at the 18th Annual SCBNA Scholarship and Awards luncheon on Sunday, April 25, 2010 at Fantasia's of North Haven, Connecticut.

For additional information contact Genice Nelson at (203)668-5420 or (203)688-8077 or e-mail genice.nelson@ynhh.org

For additional information contact Genice Nelson at (203)668-5420 or 203-688-8077 or e-mail genice.nelson@ynhh.org.

Book Awards for Minority Nursing Students

The Southern Connecticut Black Nurses' Association, Inc. is accepting applications for its annual nursing book awards. Two $500.00 book awards will be presented. The awards are given to nursing students who identify themselves as belonging to an ethnic minority group, currently enrolled in an accredited undergraduate-nursing program. The award is to help defray the cost of textbooks.

The following must be completed in order to be considered for this award:

1. Completed application
2. Essay required responding to the question, "How will you in your nursing role make a positive impact in the African American Community in relation to one of these areas, diabetes, hypertension, HIV/AIDS, breast or prostate cancer, obesity or health disparities?"
3. A copy of your most recent semester transcript with grades and a cumulative grade point average.
4. Recommendation letter from an advisor, teacher, or counselor.
5. GPA must meet your schools criteria of academic eligibility.
6. Completed application materials must be postmarked by April 3, 2010.

Please mail completed materials to:

Southern Connecticut Black Nurses' Association, Inc.

P.O. Box 2973

New Haven, Connecticut 06515-0073

Application forms available online: <http://www.scbna.org>

Recipients of the book awards will be notified by April 10, 2010. The awardees must be present to accept the awards at the 18th Annual SCBNA Scholarship and Awards Luncheon on Sunday, April 25, 2010 at Fantasia's of North Haven, Connecticut.

For additional information contact Genice Nelson at (203)668-5420 or (203)688-8077 or e-mail genice.nelson@ynhh.org.

Nursing Leadership Awards

The nursing leadership award was established to recognize outstanding nurses who have made significant contributions in their practice through demonstrated talents in nursing

1. The nominee must possess clinical expertise and demonstrate excellence in nursing practice.

2. Foster a healthy culture of respect, integrity and collegiality within the health care team.

3. Has made significant contributions to the prestige and credibility of nursing.
